Re: Carper for Senate 2000 April Quarterly Report
Identification Number: C00349217

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please accept this letter as the reply of Carper for Senate 2000 (the "Committee") to the June 6, 2000 letter issued by Jonathan B. Horton, Reports Analyst, Federal Election Commission. Mr. Horton's letter questioned the contributions of several individuals, including Messrs. Bouchard, Hirst, Nomazee, Nutter and Nutter, Jr., and Ms. Gallagher and Ms. Nomazee as possibly exceeding the limits established by the Act. Please be advised that each contribution has been timely (within 60 days of receipt) reattributed, redesignated or refunded in accordance with the Act. The Committee has copies of the reattribution/redesignation forms. The Committee intends to itemize these reattributions/redesignations on its July Quarterly Report in accordance with the Act.

Further, Mr. Horton questioned the reporting of contributions by Nona M. Cunane (1/6/00) and Nona Cunane (12/22/99), and Joseph Cunane, Jr. (12/22/99) and Joseph A. Cunane (1/12/00). I assume Mr. Horton's question was prompted due to the similarity in names of these donors. Please be advised that the 12/22/99 contribution reported from "Nona Cunane" should have been more accurately reported as received from "Nona J. Cunane". Thus, the contributions were received from separate individuals and do not violate the Act. Further, Joseph Cunane, Jr. and Joseph A. Cunane are father and son. Thus, the contributions received from each do not violate the Act.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,
